Why the Meaning Institute? Why Now? Why You?

Join us for a year long transformational process as we blend “head and heart” skills and practices to create a life that is truly fulfilling and the highest expression of your soul.

Let's learn, teach, share and grow together.”

— Marcia Wieder, CEO/Founder

Experience four full weekends with Marcia in an intimate, interactive format where you will get personal attention from a woman who has devoted her life to helping clients achieve their dreams.

We will spend quality time together engaging with our Essence at a “soul level” to determine what gives our lives meaning, so you can design a vision that truly inspires you.

You will learn productive and intuitive methods to make choices with greater clarity and certainty. This will eliminate second guessing, false starts and wrong moves, allowing you to be more efficient in achieving results faster.

You will develop the emotional mastery to access deeper levels of trust, so you feel more confident taking risks and making a bigger contribution to what is meaningful to you.

We will create a collaborative process for how to work with one another so when you are ready to implement, you can have a bigger impact with greater ease.

This transformative residential experience will be held at beautiful retreat centers where we will maximize our time together and bond over healthy food.

The Meaning Institute will help you create meaning in these three areas:

Discover what matters to you.
Contribute to something larger than yourself.
Belong to a community of like minded, kindred spirits.

- You can, or want to, access self-trust and trust in others, and in the face of uncertainty, commit and act on what's important.

This program is not for you if...

- You measure your self-worth based on other people's opinions and judgements.
- You're mainly looking for a business building program and don't value the critical role that inner work plays.
- Your primary focus or concern is on making more money.
- You need promises, guarantees and assurances in order to take a risk and go after what you truly desire.
- You've never done any kind of personal growth work or self-reflection.
- You want to simply take a next step rather than catapult forward.
- You're overly identified with your story and unwilling to grow.
- You don't value growth and development as part of your life path.

"Meaning comes from doing what matters to you and contributing to something bigger than yourself."

Celebrations

“Brilliant! As a doctor and healer, to say that this has been one of the most pivotal learning experiences and years of my life, would be a gross understatement.”

— Alan Chong

“I now feel truly worthy of being loved. I have evolved from running around trying to solve everyone’s challenges. Marcia and our wonderful TMI community have given me uniquely tailored tools to craft the life that I truly love.”

— Lori Cammerota

“Life was good and now it is great. Marcia created a safe container where I learned new skills and practices... I have been witnessed, supported and championed to dream bigger dreams. My heart is full and I am the happiest I have ever been.”

— Michelle Sanford

“My theme before entering TMI was “I don’t know what I want and what I need”. Through this work, the community and Marcia’s leadership, I found my way back to me and now trust I have everything inside of me that I need to move forward in all areas of my life.”

— Rita Balzotti

“TMI has allowed me to take my life’s mission and purpose much deeper. My heart has opened to love and I now have a new romantic partner in my life. My business grew substantially in this past year and I have more insight and clarity to launch new programs. Frankly, I loved it so much that I decided to sign up for it again!”

— Tiffany Cano

“I came into this program disconnected from source, my intuition, femininity and passion so in all honesty, I felt dead and exhausted inside. Thanks to you now my heart light is shining again.”

— Nattacia Mantei

Celebrations

---

“ So much in my life and business have changed. I opened my heart in a whole new way, which allowed me to connect with my soul at a much deeper level. This opening has led to creating new programs and launching successful new opportunities. ”

— Cynthia Stott

“ I have learned from many brilliant leaders and teachers. Yet, there has not been a single one that compares to the tremendous value TMI has given me. I’ve created a highly successful life and business, yet it could not go to the next level without Marcia’s mentoring and this amazing community. I now have a better perspective, greater peace and stability, and a business and life that has deeper meaning and more abundance. The whole year has been exquisite. ”

— Zsuzsa Novak

“ I was hiding my fears and insecurities behind an intimidating facade without even realizing it so my personal life, relationships and business suffered. I have learned to open up and trust others and most importantly, myself. I now know I can grow my mission to a highly profitable business because I value myself. Marcia, you are unique and deliver special value not available anywhere else. ”

— Teresa Cherry

“ I did not know there would be such depth to use to deepen my own experience and process. I wanted to take my work to its next level, expand my global outreach and now I feel more ready to do so. The result is shedding what no longer is appropriate, clarifying my essential gifts and desires, and simplifying what is true and current for me. ”

— Camille Maurine

“ I have been on a 30 year spiritual journey and this experience has been the most profound. The year has been dramatic, dropping away what wasn’t me and revealing a softer, warmer person. My speeches are more energizing, fun and connected and my business continues to evolve and grow. I feel like I have ended one life and begun another in a most profound way. This group allowed me to be well held and vulnerable in ways I had never allowed myself to be. ”

— Dr. Anastacia Chopelas

“ I’m not sure if I could put into words how my life has been forever changed through our time together. I found my voice after doing powerful work in the Institute. I realize who I really am and what I am meant to do and most importantly, I now have the confidence to make it happen. Most importantly, I opened my heart and allowed myself to be vulnerable. I fell in love with me and fell madly in love with our group. ”

— Anthony Diaz
